

MECHANICAL DESIGN DRAUGHT PERSONS

The Fiji Sugar Corporation Limited invites applications from qualified and experienced candidates for the above position to join its dynamic Design Services Team. This position is based at the Corporation's Design Services Office in Lautoka.

Principal Accountabilities:

- Drafting and designs of plants and structures in line with the requirements of the projects and in accordance with Design Procedures Manual and the relevant standards and codes.
- Prepare technical plan and drawings for civil/structural and construction projects.
- Site data collection for project related works.
- Ensure that work is carried out in accordance with standard operating procedures, manufacturer's recommendations, legislative requirements, codes of practice and industrial awards and agreements.
- Carry out other duties assigned by the Team Leader.

Experience / Skills

- Preferably Diploma qualifications in related field.
- Minimum of three years proven work experience.
- Good analytical skills with hands – on approach to problem solving.
- Knowledge and experience in Health & Safety requirements and standards.
- Computer literate with knowledge of AutoCAD and strong skills MS Office products.
- Resourceful and be able to work with minimum supervision.
- Should be capable of reading and understanding construction drawings.
- A valid Group 2 Driver's License would be an advantage.

Remuneration & Conditions of Service:

Remuneration & conditions of employment will be discussed at the time of interview.

Applications for the above Position to be submitted by 01 March 2019, together with a detailed CV and supporting references/Referee Names, and addressed to:

The Human Resources Department
FSC Limited – Head Office
Private Mail Bag
LAUTOKA

Or by e-mail to recruitment@fsc.com.fj

“The Fiji Sugar Corporation Limited is an equal opportunity employer.”